The International School of Los Angeles (LILA) is an international preschool through 12th grade bilingual school which offers an English and French curriculum. All students study a common bilingual program from preschool through 8th grade, after which they have a choice between the rigorous and well-balanced French Baccalauréat and International Baccalaureate Diploma programs. With four Los Angeles-area campuses, welcoming approximately 1,100 students, the School holds accreditations from the French Ministry of Education, the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), the California Association of Independent Schools (CAIS) and the International Baccalaureate (IB).

LILA welcomes approximately 700 students from Preschool – 5th grade across three elementary campuses:

Los Feliz: 440 students (350 main campus and 90 Early Learning Center)
West Valley: 120 students
Pasadena: 140 students

The School is seeking to recruit for the 2024-2025 school year experienced and high caliber professionals to lead our Los Feliz and West Valley campuses. These Campus Director positions will commence on August 5, 2024.

In addition, there may be the option – for the right candidate – to take on a lead role as Academic Coordinator/Director across our elementary offering.

If you have extensive experience as a credentialed educator in an international setting, leadership and highly developed people management skills, speak fluent English and French, and have an appetite to work in a stimulating and dynamic environment with a growth mindset, please send your application to cv@lilaschool.com by Thursday March 28. Please indicate “Campus Director LF/WV openings” in the subject line of your email.

Interested candidates may also request a confidential conversation with the Head of School before submitting a formal application by emailing cv@lilaschool.com

Note: Applicants must be US permanent residents – no temporary visa applicants will be considered.

Salary: $120k - $160k, depending on the size of the campus.
